Ike Shuns Demand For Dismissal of Chief Aide Adams

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said today President Eisenhower has no intention of firing Sherman Adams, his chief aide who is a target of House investigators.

At the same time, press secretary James C. Hagerty said there will be no White House reply to an earlier question as to whether Adams' good friend, industrialist Bernard Goldfine, once gave Adams a $700 coat.

Hagerty also said Adams has rejected reporters' requests for a news conference at which to question him personally regarding his relations with Goldfine.

The affair had prompted Rep. Peter F. Mack Jr. (D-Ill.) to say Eisenhower should fire Adams. Mack said that would be in keeping with an Eisenhower campaign pledge for a government "clean as a hound's tooth."

Three other Democrats on the House subcommittee checking federal regulatory agencies said it is up to Eisenhower to decide whether to discharge Adams, his top aide, because of Adams' dealings with wealthy Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Adams Thursday acknowledged being a hotel guest of Goldfine, whom he described as an old friend. Adams also said he contacted federal agencies on cases involving Goldfine, but he denied bringing any pressure on Goldfine's behalf. He called such charges "unwarranted."

Hagerty said Eisenhower agrees Adams' relations with Goldfine were not improper and that the President feels Adams' usefulness has not been jeopardized.

REP. MORGAN Moulder (D-Mo) said there was evidence of Goldfine having picked up a $1,300 tab following a three-day stay by Adams at Plymouth, Mass.

Adams said Thursday the subcommittee could have disclosed that he and his wife were guests of Goldfine at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth last year. He named no figure. Earlier the subcommittee developed evidence of $2,000 worth of Boston hotel bills that Goldfine paid for Adams in the past four years.

Adams' statement, in a letter to subcommittee Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark), was put out by the White House after subcommittee investigators reported allegations that Adams got the Securities and Exchange Commission and Federal Trade Commission to soften action against Goldfine.

"I categorically deny such insinuations," Adams said.

Adams is a former Republican governor of New Hampshire where Goldfine has business interests.

Harris said that, regardless of the Adams letter, he will go ahead with subcommittee plans to develop its case starting Monday with testimony from the SEC and FTC. The inquiry at this stage deals mainly with Goldfine.

Eastern U.S. Gets New Rain

Severe Thunderstorms
Hit Parts of Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain beat a hard tattoo on large areas in the eastern half of the country today.

The wet region stretched from eastern Nebraska into New York state and reached from the Great Lakes to the Ohio River Valley.

The Weather Bureau reported the Omaha, Neb., area was doused by 1.31 inches of rain in 15 minutes. More than two inches drenched Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Flint, Mich. LaFayette, in flood-torn Indiana, caught more than three inches.

Severe thunderstorms and tornadoes lashed parts of the Midwest again Thursday. A small tornado struck La Center, Ky., near the Illinois border, injuring three members of one family and damaging several homes. Several funnels were reported in eastern Kansas.

HEAVIEST rains pelted areas from northeastern Missouri and eastern Iowa eastward across central Illinois, with amounts measuring up to about two inches. New rain in Indiana threatened serious floods along the Wabash River. Showers and thunderstorms were general across the northern tier of states from Washington and Oregon eastward to the upper Great Lakes. Isolated thunderstorms hit areas in Texas and showers and thunderstorms were reported in southern Florida.

The Weather Bureau forecast showers and thunderstorms for nearly all parts of the country during the day and night. It was warm and humid from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas eastward to the Atlantic.

Clinton County Boy Drowns in Quarry

WILMINGTON (AP)—Dewey Harwick, 14, drowned Thursday night in a quarry near his home at Martinsville.

Reports were that the boy had gone swimming alone.

Senate Continues Labor Bill Debate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate moved on today to more controversial amendments to a bill designed to curb labor union abuses.

With a 12-hour session behind them, some senators predicted the bill could be disposed of by late tonight. Others said the debate would go into next week.

Eleven amendments were voted on Thursday in a long day and night of political jockeying. Nine were offered by Republicans.

Ten of the amendments were adopted, most of them without any dispute. Several cleaned up points in the bill objected to by the Eisenhower administration.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), floor manager for the bill, opposed only one of the amendments. It was beaten 47-38, but it affected only a minor section of the bill. However, some senators thought this vote might set a pattern for defeat of the more stringent amendments to be offered later by Republicans.

AMENDMENTS adopted Thursday did not change the essentials of major provisions of the bill as it came to the floor. These would set up a union democracy code including secret balloting in elections and would require full public financial reporting by larger unions, union officers and employers on labor matters.

James Mitchell, President Eisenhower's secretary of labor, frequently gets out on a limb. But he likes it there, and it seems to be his way of getting things done.

Mitchell surprised everyone Monday by sending a vehement message from Switzerland, where he was attending a meeting, blasting a Senate labor bill as ineffective, worse than none at all.

The senators whose work he was criticizing called him intemperate, and said he was injecting the whole thing into politics. Mitchell came flying back from Europe Thursday and went up on Capitol Hill. The Senate got busy making changes he's suggested.

"If he'd just made a simple statement, nobody would have paid any attention," an aide commented. "Maybe he did rock 'em, but he's won his point."

Mitchell, 57, has been alternately cussed and praised by business one time, by labor another. He just barges along speaking his mind, and gets away with it. A hard worker, he spends nights and weekends too, on his job.

Winds Whip Lockbourne

Heavy winds hit Lockbourne Air Force Base about 11 a. m. today, knocking out electrical power temporarily, but causing "negligible" damage, base officials reported.

There were rumors that a tornado had hit the base, but Air Force officials declared only some windows were blown out in older buildings and no one was hurt.

At noon everyone was back to work, they said. Aircraft "fared well," base officials reported.

Here Is Test Telling If You Are Grown-Up

ROCHELLE PARK, N. J. (AP)—If you want to find out how grown-up emotionally you are, here's a test.

Following are seven questions listed by Dr. William C. Menninger of Topeka, Kan., a noted psychiatrist, as criteria of emotional maturity.

1. Can you change? (which implies the abandonment of solutions learned in childhood.)

2. Can you accept frustration for future gain? (Compromising rather than running away or fighting.)

4. Can you meet stress without disabling symptoms?

5. Can you direct your anger into constructive outlets?

6. Do you have the capacity to love? (The doctor says that is the only neutralizer of hate.)

7. Can you relate to people in a consistent manner? (Or do you switch from friendliness today to hostility tomorrow?)

Menninger, general secretary of the Menninger Foundation in Topeka, advanced the list in a speech before the Bergen County Mental Health Center.

Ahbez, now 45, says he's still a real life nature boy.

But he has traded in his bicycle for a 1950 car and now wears moccasins instead of going barefoot. He and his family have moved from Topanga Canyon, near suburban Santa Monica, to a canyon in the San Gabriel Mountains. His boy goes to school in Whittier.

The family sleeps outdoors except when it rains. Then they retire to their one-room shack.

What's his philosophy?

"God is my father, nature my mother and everything that lives my sister and brothers. Basically, that's my philosophy."

What is his source of money?

"Why talk about money? If you're healthy and have a philosophy that real to you—and you live it—then you're rich."

"And I'll tell you another thing. At $10 a week, I'm not getting much poorer."

Gov. O'Neill Tops Elks Flag Day Fete

Plans have been completed for a colorful Flag Day observance here tomorrow.

The observance will be held in Circleville's Memorial Hall and will feature a major address by Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Sponsored by Circleville Elks Lodge, the program will get underway when Ohio's chief executive arrives in this city shortly after 2 p.m.

Plans call for the governor and his party to fly from Columbus and land at Thomas Airport, west of here.

There he will be greeted by Circleville Mayor Ben Gordon and a special Elks Lodge committee headed by Appellate Judge William D. Radcliff.

THE GOVERNOR will motor into Circleville and be met at the western edge of town by the Circleville American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps. The musical unit will parade up Main St. to Memorial Hall.

The program, scheduled to begin at 2:30 p.m., will be opened by local Elks Lodge officers. Judge Radcliff will introduce the governor.

Other local organizations expected to cooperate with the Elks Lodge in the Flag Day observance are the Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of the American Revolution, Disabled American Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the local American Legion post.

All week long, the local Elks Lodge has been urging local citizens to join in the observance of Flag Day, as a display of unity against the menace of Communist aggression.

The Lodge has urged all citizens to display the flag both at home and at business establishments in cooperation with the Elks' "Show Your Colors" program, celebrating the 181st anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777.

"Khrushchev has promised 'to bury' us, and Communist forces are working hard, at home and abroad, to carry out that promise," Elks Lodge officers said in a statement today. "Old Glory is the symbol of freedom that Khrushchev and his fellow tyrants in the Kremlin will destroy if we let them."

After a lengthy meeting Thursday night, rebel leaders said if the council really wants to end the five-week crisis it should bar arms for the government from the United States, Britain, France, Turkey, Iraq and Jordan.

"It is these arms which constituted the primary cause of the tragic turn of events in Lebanon," a rebel statement said.

Armyworms Hit Pickaway Corn Crop

Armyworms, the scourge of grain farmers, have invaded Pickaway County.

They were reported yesterday on Alkire Road, Deer Creek Twp. George Hamrick, county agricultural agent, said armyworms have been reported in 10 other Ohio counties this year, including Fayette and Clinton counties, to the west.

He said they ordinarily move from southwest to northeast across the state. State entomologists report the worms develop in bluegrass pastures and small grain fields, then move into corn fields.

Armyworms hit a cornfield on Alkire Road. They are the leaves off the young corn, but a spray job last night apparently killed them.

Hamrick urged Pickaway County farmers to inspect their fields carefully for signs of armyworms. They can be controlled by using 2 pounds of toxaphene per acre or 2.3 pints of 60 per cent emulsion concentrate per acre; or dieldrin, 1/4 pound or 1 1/3 pints of 18 per cent emulsion concentrate.

When worms are migrating spray barrier strips in corn and small grain. If corn is already infested, spray in a band over the row. Other types of spray may be used, Hamrick said, but waiting periods are involved and care should be used in application and later use.

War II Flying Ace Dies at Age of 36

FREEPORT, Maine (AP)—John T. Godfrey, 36, who claimed to be the nation's second ranking World War II flying ace, died Thursday. He was stricken with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, a fatal disease, in 1956.

Godfrey claimed 36 kills but the Air Force credited him with 29. The late Richard I. Bong held the record with 40 kills.

let them. Let us strengthen our faith in our way of life, and our determination to defend it by honoring our Flag on its birthday."

Elks Lodges throughout the nation will pay similar tribute to the Flag Saturday—as they have yearly on June 14 since 1907.

LOCAL ELKS Lodge officers who will play roles in tomorrow afternoon's program will be Gunner Musselman, exalted ruler; Frank Barnhill Jr., leading knight; Leo Morgan, chaplain; and Richard Plum, organist.

Members of the lodge committee who are handling details concerning the address by Gov. O'Neill are Judge Radcliff, Mayor Gordon, Judge William Ammer, Ray W. Davis and Charles H. May.

Special Call Still Slated

Court Decision Fails To Alter O'Neill Plan

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill still plans to call a special session of the Ohio Legislature this month, but his hopes of a State Supreme Court ruling on the Supplemental Unemployment Benefits (SUB) issue have vanished.

The court Thursday announced it would not shorten the 40-day period for filing briefs in the two SUB cases now before it. O'Neill has hoped the cases could have been disposed of so the Legislature would not be debating the issue at the same time the court was deliberating.

The court's announcement indicated several parties objected to waiving the 40-day rule. They have intervened in the cases in opposition to lower court decisions. These held that SUB and state unemployment benefits can be paid at the same time without the former being deducted from the latter.

Following the court announcement, O'Neill declared that he still plans to call the legislative session and that he will set the date shortly. However, the governor ruled out the possibility it will be called next week.

O'NEILL SAID it appeared "inevitable that it (SUB) will be before the special session in one form or another. And I assume the Legislature will dispose of it, in one way or another."

He said he still felt it necessary to call the Legislature despite the fact the SUB question will not have been decided by the Supreme Court before the lawmakers meet.

The governor said: "In my opinion the matters I will place before the Legislature are of such importance that we cannot delay beyond the date I have indicated."

He again stated the call would be made on or before June 30.

Since most Columbus hotels are filled for June 30, because of an Ohio Farm Bureau Federation convention, the week of Monday, June 23, appeared to be the only available time.

North Ohio Gets Storm Warning

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Weather Bureau today issued a warning of severe weather conditions expected to hit Ohio this afternoon and up until 10 p. m. Danger of tornadoes was contained in the warning.

The bureau said the scattered severe thunderstorms and a few tornadoes are expectable 60 miles on either side of a line from 60 miles southeast of Chicago to 30 miles southeast of Akron.

In Ohio this would reach southward to the northern portions of Darke, Miami, Champaign, Union, Delaware, Licking, Muskingum and Guernsey counties.

Near Civil War Averted

Old Greek-Turk Feud
Rocks Cyprus Again

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Only British troops walked the streets of Nicosia today as authorities clamped on the first 100 per cent curfew in an effort to end communal fighting.

Britain also ordered paratroopers to the Mediterranean colony to strengthen her troops trying to end continuing clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. Eleven Cypriots have been killed since Saturday.

Since the outbreak of communal rioting, the Greek and Turkish communities had been allowed out of doors separately for several hours daily to get food and other essentials. Today even that was prohibited and such pass holders as doctors, civil servants and reporters were included in the prohibition.

British plans for the future of Cyprus are expected to intensify the violence by failing fully to satisfy either the 400,000 Cypriots of Greek descent or the 100,000 Turks.

THE GREEKS want the island annexed to Greece. The Turks want Cyprus partitioned if the British leave.

The situation approached civil war Thursday with the bloodiest battle yet. A gang of 300 Greek Cypriots tried to raid a Turkish village near Nicosia and was met with gunfire. Three Greeks were killed and nine wounded.

British troops headed off part of the Greek mob, arresting 30 and disarming the rest, but one group set fire to crops and was attacked by hidden Turks. Seventeen Turks were arrested.

In another clash, club-swinging British troops broke up a Turkish mob trying to storm a Nicosia police station. Authorities clamped an earlier curfew on the Turkish section of town.

The War Office in London said the situation on Cyprus is deteriorating and more troops are needed to bolster the British forces that make this an East Mediterranean stronghold. About 500 paratroopers are expected to be flown here Saturday. Other troops in England have been alerted.

Boy, 14, Saves Youth from Swollen River

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 14-year-old boy, who hopes to be a lifeguard some day, leaped into the rain-swollen Olentangy River here Thursday and came out pulling a half-drowned 16-year-old lad.

Five-foot, 140-pound James Vanatta was walking along the river near the Ohio State University campus when he heard a woman's screams.

He raced to where he could see Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blevins and they pointed to where their 16-year-old stepson, Edward Rowe, had disappeared under the muddy water of the river.

Jimmy quickly stripped down to a swimming suit he was wearing under his clothes and plunged into the swift current.

When he got to the spot where Edward had gone under, Jimmy dived to the bottom.

On the third dive he felt a limp form lying on the bottom. After losing his grip several times struggling to the shore with the unconscious youth, Jimmy dragged him onto the bank and began administering artificial respiration. That is when firemen arrived. Edward later was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Mrs. Blevins said the family had been fishing when they heard Edward call to a girl on the opposite bank that he was going to swim across to her. About three-quarters of the way across, the youth disappeared.

All week long, the local Elks Lodge has been urging local citizens to join in the observance of Flag Day, as a display of unity against the menace of Communist aggression.

The Lodge has urged all citizens to display the flag both at home and at business establishments in cooperation with the Elks' "Show Your Colors" program, celebrating the 181st anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes by the Continental Congress on June 14, 1777.

"Khrushchev has promised 'to bury' us, and Communist forces are working hard, at home and abroad, to carry out that promise," Elks Lodge officers said in a statement today. "Old Glory is the symbol of freedom that Khrushchev and his fellow tyrants in the Kremlin will destroy if we

Armyworms, the scourge of grain farmers, have invaded Pickaway County.

They were reported yesterday on Alkire Road, Deer Creek Twp. George Hamrick, county agricultural agent, said armyworms have been reported in 10 other Ohio counties this year, including Fayette and Clinton counties, to the west.

He said they ordinarily move from southwest to northeast across the state. State entomologists report the worms develop in bluegrass pastures and small grain fields, then move into corn fields.

Armyworms hit a cornfield on Alkire Road. They are the leaves of the young corn, but a spray job last night apparently killed them.

Hamrick urged Pickaway County farmers to inspect their fields carefully for signs of armyworms. They can be controlled by using 2 pounds of toxaphene per acre or 2 2-3 pints of 60 per cent emulsion concentrate per acre; or dieldrin, 1/4 pound or 1 1-3 pints of 18 per cent emulsion concentrate.

When worms are migrating spray barrier strips in corn and small grain. If corn is already infested, spray in a band over the row. Other types of spray may be used, Hamrick said, but waiting periods are involved and care should be used in application and later use.

War II Flying Ace Dies at Age of 36

FREEPORT, Maine (AP)—John T. Godfrey, 36, who claimed to be the nation's second ranking World War II flying ace, died Thursday. He was stricken with an aneurysm, a fatal disease, in 1956.

Godfrey claimed 36 kills but the Air Force credited him with 29. The late Richard I. Bong held the record with 40 kills.

Elks Lodges throughout the nation will pay similar tribute to the Flag Saturday—as they have yearly on June 14 since 1907.

LOCAL ELKS Lodge officers who will play roles in tomorrow afternoon's program will be Gunner Musselman, exalted ruler; Frank Barnhill Jr., leading knight; Leo Morgan, chaplain; and Richard Plum, organist.

Members of the lodge committee who are handling details concerning the address by Gov. O'Neill are Judge Radcliff, Mayor Gordon, Judge William Ammer, Ray W. Davis and Charles H. May.

Special Call Still Slated

Court Decision Fails To Alter O'Neill Plan

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. C. William O'Neill still plans to call a special session of the Ohio Legislature this month, but his hopes of a State Supreme Court ruling on the Supplemental Unemployment Benefits (SUB) issue have vanished.

The court Thursday announced it would not shorten the 40-day period for filing briefs in the two SUB cases now before it. O'Neill has hoped the cases could have been disposed of so the Legislature would not be debating the issue at the same time the court was deliberating.

The court's announcement indicated several parties objected to waiving the 40-day rule. They have intervened in the cases in opposition to lower court decisions. These held that SUB and state unemployment benefits can be paid at the same time without the former being deducted from the latter.

Following the court announcement, O'Neill declared that he still plans to call the legislative session and that he will set the date shortly. However, the governor ruled out the possibility it will be called next week.

O'NEILL said it appeared "inevitable that it (SUB) will be before the special session in one form or another. And I assume the Legislature will dispose of it, in one way or another."

He said he still felt it necessary to call the Legislature despite the fact the SUB question will not have been decided by the Supreme Court before the lawmakers meet. The governor said:

"In my opinion the matters I will place before the Legislature are of such importance that we cannot delay beyond the date I have indicated."

He again stated the call would be made on or before June 30.

Since most Columbus hotels are filled for June 30, because of an Ohio Farm Bureau Federation convention, the week of Monday, June 23, appeared to be the only available time.

North Ohio Gets Storm Warning

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Weather Bureau today issued a warning of severe weather conditions expected to hit Ohio this afternoon and up until 10 p. m. Danger of tornadoes was contained in the warning.

The bureau said the scattered severe thunderstorms and a few tornadoes are expectable 60 miles on either side of a line from 60 miles southeast of Chicago to 30 miles southeast of Akron.

In Ohio this would reach southward to the northern portions of Darke, Miami, Champaign, Union, Delaware, Cicking, Muskingum and Guernsey counties.

Near Civil War Averted

Old Greek-Turk Feud Rocks Cyprus Again

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Only British troops walked the streets of Nicosia today as authorities clamped on the first 100 per cent curfew in an effort to end communal fighting.

Britain also ordered paratroopers to the Mediterranean colony to strengthen her troops trying to end continuing clashes between Greek and Turkish Cypriots. Eleven Cypriots have been killed since Saturday.

Since the outbreak of communal rioting, the Greek and Turkish communities had been allowed out of doors separately for several hours daily to get food and other essentials. Today even that was prohibited and such pass holders as doctors, civil servants and reporters were included in the prohibition.

British plans for the future of Cyprus are expected to intensify the violence by failing fully to satisfy either the 400,000 Cypriots of Greek descent or the 100,000 Turks.

THE GREEKS want the island annexed to Greece. The Turks want Cyprus partitioned if the British leave.

The situation approached civil war Thursday with the bloodiest battle yet. A gang of 300 Greek Cypriots tried to raid a Turkish village near Nicosia and was met with gunfire. Three Greeks were killed and nine wounded.

British troops headed off part of the Greek mob, arresting 30 and disarming the rest, but one group set fire to crops and was attacked by hidden Turks. Seventeen Turks were arrested.

In another clash, club-swinging British troops broke up a Turkish mob trying to storm a Nicosia police station. Authorities clamped an earlier curfew on the Turkish section of town.

The War Office in London said the situation on Cyprus is deteriorating and more troops are needed to bolster the British forces that make this an East Mediterranean stronghold. About 500 paratroopers are expected to be flown here Saturday. Other troops in England have been alerted.

Boy, 14, Saves Youth from Swollen River

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 14-year-old boy, who hopes to be a lifeguard some day, leaped into the rain-swollen Olentangy River here Thursday and came out pulling a half-drowned 16-year-old lad.

Five-foot, 140-pound James Vantatta was walking along the river near the Ohio State University campus when he heard a woman's screams.

He raced to where he could see Mr. and Mrs. Ray Blevins and they pointed to where their 16-year-old stepson, Edward Rowe, had disappeared under the muddy water of the river.

Jimmy quickly stripped down to a swimming suit he was wearing under his clothes and plunged into the swift current.

When he got to the spot where Edward had gone down, Jimmy dived to the bottom.

On the third dive he felt a limp form lying on the bottom. After losing his grip several times struggling to the shore with the unconscious youth, Jimmy dragged him onto the bank and began administering artificial respiration. That is when firemen arrived. Edward later was reported in satisfactory condition at a hospital.

Mrs. Blevins said the family had been fishing when they heard Edward call to a girl on the opposite bank that he was going to swim across to her. About three-quarters of the way across, the youth disappeared.

Pesky Auto Makes Own Entrance

Griffith's Furniture store, 520 E. Main St., had some unexpected customers yesterday at about 5 p.m. when a car crashed through a plate glass window and into the firm's showroom.

The incident started when a car owned by Mack White, 147 E. Mill St., became contrary and decided to go forward instead of backward.

According to Griffith spokesmen the Whites had been shopping in the store a few minutes earlier. When they attempted to leave in their car, parked in front of the store, the auto apparently made a crazy lurch forward and through the glass.

Robert Griffith, co-owner of the firm, said damage to the glass amounted to about $150. No furniture was damaged he said.

The Whites were not injured, although their pesky auto received slight scratches.

Griffith said that a few minutes before the crash, a couple had been looking at furniture at the exact spot where the car came crashing through. Fortunately, they had moved to another section of the store only seconds before the impact.

Griffith said all persons in the store were soundly jolted by the sudden tinkle of shattered glass. He was quick to add that the best entrance remains to be the front door.

2 Men Appear Before Judge

Two persons appeared before Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer Tuesday, with one being placed on probation and the other sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory.

Harold G. Reynolds, 24, Route 1, Laureville, received a sentence of one to three years at hard labor in the reformatory. He broke probation when he issued a check with insufficient funds.

Reynolds was placed on three years probation April 15 for issuing a check with no bank account. He also had failed to report to the county prosecutor each month as instructed by the court.

Howard Dysart, Columbus, was placed on three years probation for breaking and entering the Western Auto Associate Store, 124 W. Main St., in 1951. He had just been released from Mansfield Reformatory, serving a seven-year sentence from Franklin County for a similar charge.

His extended seven year sentence was due to the fact that he had walked away from the reformatory several years ago, but was apprehended shortly thereafter.

Eaton Still Ready For Probe Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cyrus Eaton left Washington today proclaiming his readiness to discuss his associations with Soviet personalities any time a congressional committee wants to see him.

The 74-year-old Cleveland financier earlier had accused Chairman Francis E. And, said Eaton, the same goes for Richard Arens, the committee's staff director.

Man Accused In 2 Rapes Is Captured

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 40-hour manhunt, one of the largest in central Ohio in years, ended quietly here Thursday night when two off-duty policemen arrested Fred Cooks, 37-year-old Negro charged with raping two white women.

The Columbus man was arrested in a pay telephone booth by Sgt. Sanford R. Lee and Patrolman Earl C. Jackson as he tried to call a minister in a second attempt to give himself up.

The manhunt, which at one time included about 300 men, was touched off Wednesday morning when a 24-year-old mother and her 18-year-old babysitter were bound and raped at the woman's home just south of Delaware Dam in neighboring Delaware County.

Sheriff's deputies, state highway patrolmen and volunteers combed a wooded area south of the dam but with no luck.

The search switched to Columbus Thursday when Cooks called a minister, the Rev. John B. Quick, and said he wanted to give himself up. Rev. Mr. Quick met Cooks at a Columbus address the latter had given, but when the minister went to call police, Cooks became frightened and fled.

Old Age Fund Pay-Out Tops Its Income

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in its history, the Social Security system is paying out more in benefits this year than it is taking in from taxes.

Its trustees reported to Congress today that the Old Age and Survivors Insurance trust fund will drop about $428 million in the fiscal year ending June 30, and may show a total decline of $4 billion for the five-year period ending June 30, 1962.

But they emphasized that for the long-range future the system remains in balance for all practical purposes. They said the trust fund total should start another long-term rise in 1965.

The trust fund reached a peak of $23 billion last June 30. The estimated five-year drop still would leave up to $20 billion in the trust fund, which was set up specifically to meet such fluctuations.

The tax rate is now 2 1/4 per cent each on employees and employers on the first $4,200 of a worker's yearly earnings. It is to go up one-half per cent on each in 1960, 1965, 1970 and 1975. The rate for self-employed persons is half again as high.

3 Marion Prison Inmates Escape

MARION (AP)—Three inmates of the Marion Correctional Institution escaped early today after breaking bars in a hospital window.

The escapees are Duane E. Gulley, 21, sentenced from Hamilton County for burglary; Herman E. Williams, 31, sentenced from Washington County for armed robbery; and James R. Murphy, 25, sentenced from Lorain County, also for armed robbery. Gulley was the patient, but had not been seriously ill.

Pesky Auto Makes Own Entrance

Griffith's Furniture store, 520 E. Main St., had some unexpected customers yesterday at about 5 p.m. when a car crashed through a plate glass window and into the firm's showroom.

The incident started when a car owned by Mack White, 147 E. Mill St., became contrary and decided to go forward instead of backward.

According to Griffith's spokesman the Whites had been shopping in the store a few minutes earlier. When they attempted to leave in their car, parked in front of the store, the auto apparently made a crazy lurch forward and through the glass.

Robert Griffith, co-owner of the firm, said damage to the glass amounted to about $150. No furniture was damaged he said.

The Whites were not injured, although their pesky auto received slight scratches.

Griffith said that a few minutes before the crash, a couple had been looking at furniture at the exact spot where the car came crashing through. Fortunately, they had moved to another section of the store only seconds before the impact.

Griffith said all persons in the store were soundly jolted by the sudden tinkle of shattered glass. He was quick to add that the best entrance remains to be the front door.

2 Men Appear Before Judge

Two persons appeared before Pickaway County Common Pleas Judge William Ammer Tuesday, with one being placed on probation and the other sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory.

Harold G. Reynolds, 24, Route 1, Laureville, received a sentence of one to three years at hard labor in the reformatory. He broke probation when he issued a check with insufficient funds.

Reynolds was placed on three years probation April 15 for issuing a check with no bank account. He also had failed to report to the county prosecutor each month as instructed by the court.

Howard Dysart, Columbus, was placed on three years probation for breaking and entering the Western Auto Associate Store, 124 W. Main St., in 1951. He had just been released from Mansfield Reformatory, serving a seven-year sentence from Franklin County for a similar charge.

His extended seven year sentence was due to the fact that he had walked away from the reformatory several years ago, but was apprehended shortly afterwards.

Ailing Boy Reunites His Mother, Dad

GLENDAL, Calif. — Donald Rose and Virginia Rose stood by the bed of their 5-year-old son, Donny, as a minister reunited them in marriage.

But it was Donny who reunited them in spirit.

Eaton Still Ready For Probe Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cyrus Eaton left Washington today proclaiming his readiness to discuss his associations with Soviet personalities any time a congressional committee wants to see him.

The 74-year-old Cleveland financier earlier had accused Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Committee on Un-American Activities of "despicable, un-American tactics in attempting to intimidate, bully and push citizens around." And, said Eaton, the same goes for Richard Arens, the committee's staff director.

Man Accused In 2 Rapes Is Captured

COLUMBUS (AP)—A 40-hour manhunt, one of the largest in central Ohio in years, ended quietly here Thursday night when two off-duty policemen arrested Fred Cooks, 37-year-old Negro charged with raping two white women.

The Columbus man was arrested in a pay telephone booth by Sgt. Sanford R. Lee and Patrolman Earl C. Jackson as he tried to call a minister in a second attempt to give himself up.

The manhunt, which at one time included about 300 men, was touched off Wednesday morning when a 24-year-old mother and her 18-year-old babysitter were bound and raped at the woman's home just south of Delaware Dam in neighboring Delaware County.

Sheriff's deputies, state highway patrolmen and volunteers combed a wooded area south of the dam but with no luck.

The search switched to Columbus Thursday when Cooks called a minister, the Rev. John B. Quick, and said he wanted to give himself up. Rev. Quick met Cooks at a Columbus address the latter had given, but when the minister went to call police, Cooks became frightened and fled.

Old Age Fund Pay-Out Tops Its Income

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time in its history, the Social Security system is paying out more in benefits this year than it is taking in from taxes.

Its trustees reported to Congress today that the Old Age and Survivors Insurance trust fund will drop about $428 million in the fiscal year ending June 30, and may show a total decline of $4 billion for the five-year period ending June 30, 1962.

But they emphasized that for the long-range future the system remains in balance for all practical purposes. They said the trust fund total should start another long-term rise in 1965.

The trust fund reached a peak of $23 billion last June 30. The estimated five-year drop still would leave up to $20 billion in the trust fund, which was set up specifically to meet such fluctuations.

The tax rate is now 2 1/4 per cent each on employees and employers on the first $4,200 of a worker's yearly earnings. It is to go up one-half per cent on each in 1960, 1965, 1970 and 1975. The rate for self-employed persons is half again as high.

3 Marion Prison Inmates Escape

MARION (AP)—Three inmates of the Marion Correctional Institution escaped early today after breaking bars in a hospital window.

The three, two of whom had been serving as nurses and the third a patient, crawled through a narrow opening in the barred window on to a roof, and then jumped to the ground.

The escapees are Duane E. Gulley, 21, sentenced from Hamilton County for burglary; Herman E. Williams, 31, sentenced from Washington County for armed robbery; and James R. Murphy, 25, sentenced from Lorain County, also for armed robbery. Gulley was the patient, but had not been seriously ill.

He Is Lone Male In YWCA Hotel

NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Reilly, an 83-year-old bachelor, is living the life of Reilly—the only male guest in the YWCA hotel.

Outnumbered 310-1, he says: "The girls don't bother me and I don't bother them."

The building used to be the Capitol Hotel. The YWCA purchased it and converted it, then started asking the guests to vacate.

Reilly and five other men held out for the last 18 months. But all under 70 years old had to leave. The five others bowed to court orders Thursday. But not Reilly. A YWCA spokesman said Reilly will be allowed to remain indefinitely.

U.S. Confidence Seen Rising To Offset Slump

Optimists Pointing To Upturns Enjoyed By Some Industries

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Confidence is rising today that the basic soundness of the economy is winning the fight against the forces of recession. Even this, the only Friday the 13th of the year, isn't scaring the optimists.

Upturns in some industries this month and the official figures on May showing gains in many sectors of the economy are helping dispel the gloom.

At the same time, however, more soothsayers are stretching out their time tables when guessing the date of a general upturn. What they see just ahead is a long stalemate.

With employment and personal incomes gaining in May over April, with 64 million Americans having jobs and total wages and salaries increasing for the first time since the slump began, with retail sales rising from their March lows, some are asking now: "Where is the recession?"

The same official figures give the answer. Total employment went up in May. But employment in manufacturing plants continued to slide, off 67,000 from April. Total wages and salaries rose by 700 million dollars at an annual rate. But in the manufacturing sector of the economy the long downturn continued, off 100 million dollars at an annual rate.

That is where the recession is. Manufacturing is where the recession has concentrated.

But the over-all picture is a bit brighter today. And the May and June figures are allaying the fears of many. The usual summer slump in industry soon upon us may dampen some of this new enthusiasm.

And the forecasters take this into account in abandoning the first-of-the-year view that the upturn could start in July. Now most of them are saying it can't come before the end of the year and maybe not until 1959 is well along.

That's because they feel that while continued consumer buying of soft goods and of services is cushioning and to a major extent offsetting the fal in industry, no real upturn can be expected until manufacturing of durables and ordering of new plants and equipment by business is on the upgrade again and whittling of inventories comes to a full stop.

Man Slain By Police After Fuss

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A series of shootings that followed a domestic quarrel Thursday night left a man dead, his estranged wife wounded and in serious condition and a policeman wounded in the arm.

Harry Dean, 62, was slain by police after he shot his wife, Clara, 47, and wounded Patrolman Rudy March.

Dean had gone to his wife's home to discuss her application for a divorce and fired several shots at her with a .22-caliber revolver.

Two bullets struck the woman in the abdomen and right hand. Neighbors, who summoned police, said Dean shouted as he sped away in his car.

"If police come after me they'll never take me alive," Patrolmen March and William Poulos stopped Dean about a mile from the shooting scene and ordered him out of his car. Dean fired and hit March in the right arm.

The officers returned the fire, six bullets hitting Dean.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Just before Dick and I married, his father died. My heart went out to his mother and although we refused to live with her, we did make our home in the same town.

She and I became very close and I listened while she talked out her grief; and then helped her, as best I could, to face the great change in her life. I grew to love her as a mother.

My own family life was always full of loving closeness; and I have many friends, and close friends. I love my husband and children, and am a good wife and mother. But somehow Dick's mother is drifting away from our love; even my brother-in-law and his wife feel it.

She has attached herself to another family, and makes it her own. She spends all her free time and special days with them, and lets us know that we aren't welcome when she is entertaining her friends. She can't wait for us to leave on Sundays, so she can join her people. She doesn't even invite us to her birthday parties; and if we drop in she makes it embarrassingly clear that we are intruding.

She acts like a child, tasting freedom for the first time; and jealously guards her friends, to keep them for herself.

She is building up to a lonely old

Colombia Displays Warmth To Visitors from America

By LARRY ALLEN
BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—It's only 781 air miles between this capital city of Colombia and Caracas, Venezuela, but they are worlds apart in the treatment accorded U.S. citizens.

Here there is warmth, sympathy and friendliness. In Caracas there is coolness that borders upon open hostility.

A passenger alighting here walks through two lines of smiling, blue-uniformed customs guards into the airport administration building. Passengers are informed over a loudspeaker: "You will pass through in just a moment, please, after immigration and customs formalities. While you are waiting, this is to welcome you to Colombia. Please have a cup of our fine coffee."

A white-jacketed boy immediately starts serving coffee—backbone of this nation's economy.

There's a quick look at passports and health cards and the passenger is ushered into the baggage reception room. Each passenger opens his suitcase but rarely does a customs official touch any of the contents. There's merely a glance and a smile, the traveler is on his way.

The whole process averages from 5 to 10 minutes, a far cry from what happens to the passenger—particularly a North American—who lands at Maiquetia, the airport for Venezuela's capital city of Caracas.

Soldiers and national guardsmen, wearing steel helmets, carrying rifles, pistols, or even sub-machineguns, are on guard at Maiquetia. They bunch all passengers together and lead them to the airport administration building.

Then comes the long wait—45 minutes to two hours or more—before a traveler is called to present his passport and health card.

Every passport and health card is rigidly inspected. At another desk a Venezuelan, with a soldier looking on, flips through the cards in a filing cabinet, just to make sure no enemy of the state is trying to enter. After that, there's a rush by passengers for another room where 6 to 10 Venezuelans are typing out entry index cards. Here the wait can easily run into an hour.

Then, if a passenger doesn't have any Venezuelan money, he has to stand in line to wait until he gets some.

Finally, he pushed through soldier-guarded doors into the baggage room where Venezuelans take their time about locating and delivering baggage. Once suit-

Jury Foreman Says Wrong Verdict Signed

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—A jury foreman said today he signed the wrong verdict in a morals case involving a 50-year-old man and a 7-year-old girl. It appears likely to stand.

Ross Wolfe, foreman of a Common Pleas Court jury, said he didn't know of the error until he read an account of the trial in the Mount Vernon News.

Harvey Clark of Mount Vernon was indicted on three counts of taking indecent liberties with and raping a 7-year-old girl.

Wolfe said the jury agreed on a verdict of guilty on two of the three counts. But the verdict he signed one of 10 possible verdicts, found Clark guilty of only simple assault. The jury reported Tuesday.

Another juror called Wolfe's attention to the error after reading the newspaper account. Wolfe reported to Judge J. S. McDewitt:

"I must have signed the wrong verdict."

Judge McDewitt's only comment: "It will have to stand."

Prosecutor Charles W. Ayers newsmen:

"I don't know what can be done to correct this mistake. I will study the law to determine if a new trial can be held."

Shot-Up Jail Escapee Still Seriously Ill

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—Dari Dee Parker, 27-year-old gunman who shot his way out of jail at Fort Wayne Tuesday only to be wounded and captured a few hours later in Ohio, was still listed in serious condition Thursday in the federal penitentiary hospital.

"He's a pretty sick man, and he won't give anybody any trouble for a while," said Warden Donald Byington.

Parker escaped from the Allen County Jail in a deputy sheriff's uniform taken at gunpoint and forced a mail carrier to drive him into Ohio. He was trapped at a police roadblock near the Indiana-Ohio state line near Hicksville, Ohio, and wounded in the leg and stomach when he jumped from the car shooting.

Accused of taking part in a $50,000 holdup of a Lincoln National Bank branch in Fort Wayne last Oct. 18, Parker was transferred immediately to the federal prison by FBI agents for safekeeping until his trial. His home is in Canton, Ohio.

age, I think. Please help me to help her. Or if I am wrong, please help me to quiet my mind.

B.F.
DEAR B.F.: In your long letter, here condensed, you say that your mother-in-law, let's call her Mrs. F., was "very dominated by her husband, and lived only for her family, when they were all together." Yet the family would go off and leave her alone on weekends.

Nowadays the tables are turned; she has no time for family. Recently she even refused to travel 100 miles to see her own mother, when the latter became desperately ill. Also she has alienated herself from her sisters; she never writes or goes to see them.

Evidently she has found new friends—this other family that you speak of—who enjoy her as a person; or at any rate, have completely convinced her that they do. And she enjoys her independent status in this association where she doesn't feel dated—nor ready for the ash heap, as a left-over member of the older generation. Rather she feels like somebody in her own right—a person with a name; not a family fixture with a kinship label (as Mom, or Sis, or Gramma).

It is regrettable that you feel so rejected; but possibly you set too much store on being everybody's darling. It is jealous and hypersensitive on your part, to make so much fuss about not being first in Mrs. F.'s affections.

If you truly love her, as you claim, you will be glad for her, that she has found her own feet in widowhood — because the highest proof of mature love is to set the beloved free, to love you or not, or seek you or not, as the needs of his (or her) nature decree.

Students Vying for Jobs

More teen-agers than ever will comprise the force of high school and college students vying for summer jobs this year. And economic conditions are certain to make the competition keener than in the past.

Every spring, before the nation's colleges and high schools release their army of potential summer workers, the U. S. Secretary of Labor customarily outlines their prospects for them.

This year Secretary James P. Mitchell estimated he was addressing 4 million such teen-agers, 2 million of whom would be seeking employment as a matter of economic necessity. Another million were represented as entering the labor market for the first time.

Close to 100 types of work are open to these young people, Mitchell said. Farm jobs—either full-time or on a day-to-day basis—offer the most openings. In one Midwest campaign to recruit both boys and girls for farm work, the rallying calls this year are "Build up those football muscles" and "Trim up that figure."

Summer resort jobs and work in seasonal businesses are expected to employ the next largest number of students. Opportunities vary with local conditions throughout the country. The point made is that the teen-ager who makes an aggressive search for a job, and who is willing to compromise on the type of work and pay he would like, is more likely to be among the successful searchers for summer jobs.

With many young people a job in the summer makes the difference or whether they continue their education. But work during the vacation months also provides an opportunity for basic training and helps a young man or woman to reach a final decision on his life work. Work experience of any kind is valuable to the teen-ager with his productive life before him.

The danger of summer employment is that the feeling of independence summer-time earnings give may lead young people to a wrong decision about further schooling. One pound should prove the need for as much education as possible.

A typical high school graduate will earn $50,000 more in a lifetime than will the eighth-grade 'graduate.'

Letter-Writing Art Decaying

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—"As her favorite nephew, we know you will be deeply distressed to learn of the passing of your late beloved aunt, whom we had the pleasure of serving as attorneys for 50 years."

"Probate of her will discloses that you—"

Who, on receiving a letter that begins in this way, could refrain from reading it all the way through?

Practically no one.

But how often does one get such a really interesting letter as this one? Hardly ever.

When you are very young, any letter is exciting and holds the possibility of great mystery. You turn it over and over to prolong the thrill. And when you open it, you are content even if it is only a form letter telling you how to raise guinea pigs for fun and profit, or how to build bigger muscles for $3.95.

But as you grow older and more cynical, the romance tends to disappear from the postman's mailbag. A man kind is flooded daily by an ocean of mail, most of it wasted because most of it is unread.

The art of letter writing has fallen into a period of sad decay. The average man feels he is lucky if, amid a thousand letters sent to him, he finds one that is really worth the trouble of opening.

The bulk of his mail consists of bills, charity appeals or invitations to buy something he either doesn't want or can't really afford. Most of this he tosses away.

But now and then he gets a letter turned out by someone who really knows how to write. For example, there are letters that start out as follows:

"The enclosed check is in grateful appreciation of—"

"We have read the manuscript of your stirring novel and are happy to inform you that—"

"Our board of directors, despite the recession, has voted an extra quarterly dividend of—"

"A review of your 1956 tax return has disclosed you overpaid—"

"Remember how I had to fight you to get you to buy that $1 chance on a new 1958 convertible? Well, the winning ticket has been drawn, and guess who—"

"Usually our country club requires a $500 initiation fee for new members, but in your case—"

"Frankly, I thought your son would flunk out the first semester. However, now I must admit—"

"Remember the little redhead who stood up on that prom date in 1938? Well, all these years my conscience has—"

"The lodge next year has to be led by a guy who has real character as well as drive. Your name came up during—"

"Your wife returned the dress, and a credit of $175 has been made to you—"

But you don't hardly get that kind of letter no more, do you?

The Cyrus Eaton Phenomenon

By George Sokolsky

The assumption that because a man is a capitalist, he must be anti-Communist or anti-Russian is untenable. Cyrus Eaton is an American capitalist. He has made and makes his money by investments in enterprises in the United States, Canada and elsewhere. He has become a protagonist of more friendly Soviet-American relations. Naturally, that is his privilege.

But he, too often, associates his pro-Soviet attitude with in-temperate statements on subjects concerning which he cannot be well-informed.

Eaton has said:

"The way to combat Communism is not by witch-hunting and wire-tapping. These police-state methods may gain momentary notoriety for the office-seeking politicians who advocate and employ them, but they offer no solution for our long-term economic problems."

To which the following questions may be asked:

1. What is the "solution for our long-term economic problems"?

2. Whose wires have been tapped and by whom?

3. What politicians employ wire-tapping and for what purpose?

Concerning the solution, it would be interesting to hear Eaton out. He may have a philosophy and he may not. The fact that a man knows how to manipulate money is not sure proof that he does or does not know anything else. I have for years read Eaton's statements on various subjects and thus far have not discovered that he is either an Adam Smith or a Karl Marx. But there is no knowing: he may have a solution up his sleeve.

Eaton wrote in "The Progressive":

"Our Mr. Dulles sometimes talks just as the Kaiser did in 1914. And when one becomes swollen with pride, one becomes arrogant and truculent and someone will take up the challenge."

Then he added: "I feel confident Russia is not now trying to sell the United States on Communism..."

Now, just as a matter of accuracy, I wish Eaton would draw up parallel columns showing the similarity of the Kaiser and Dulles, that is the talk of the Kaiser in 1914 and of Dulles in 1958 or any other year Eaton might choose. It might also be interesting to compare Eaton's statement concerning Soviet Russia's efforts to sell the United States on Communism with Khrushchev's interview on the Columbia Broadcasting System's television show in which Khrushchev assured all Americans that their grandchildren would live under socialism, meaning his particular brand which is called Communism. Either Khrushchev did not know what he meant to say or Eaton did not understand what Khrushchev said. Also, Eaton might read Khrushchev's speech to the Bulgarian Communists which deals with this subject.

Whereas it was possible for Khrushchev to do this Columbia Broadcasting job of propaganda within the United States, it is still impossible for any American to speak to the Russian people. Khrushchev might, of course, justify Eaton's optimism by permitting the speech that Herbert Hoover will deliver at the Brussels Fair to be heard by the entire Soviet Universal State.

Cyrus Eaton went on Mike Wallace's television show to call the FBI a Gestapo. Does he know what the Gestapo was? Does he know what the Cheka, the NKVD were? Does he know what the MVD is? Does he know what the FBI is? Anybody can get front

Old Capone Gangster Get Prison Sentence

CHICAGO (AP)—Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, one of the few surviving members of the old Capone gang, has been sentenced to nine years in prison and fined $15,000 for income tax evasion.

The 60-year-old crime syndicate veteran was convicted May 29 of failing to pay $99,000 in taxes for 1948, 1949 and 1950.

Dist. Judge Julius H. Miner assessed the punishment. The maximum would have been 15 years in prison and a $30,000 fine.

TV Habits Affect Children

By Herman N. Bundesen, M. D.

Children can benefit a lot from television providing their parents govern the family's viewing habits with a little common sense.

A while back, everyone was worried about TV's adverse effect on the kids. It interfered with their school work, increased nervousness, caused eye fatigue, disturbed their eating habits and cut down on their reading.

Recently, Dr. Paul Witty, professor of education at Northwestern University, reported that an eight-year study shows these problems either have been corrected or are diminishing.

Moreover, he said, television is now viewed as a potential helper in the rearing of children.

It is a great builder of vocabularies. If you doubt it, just listen to your youngster rattle off the names of the various breakfast cereals sometime. Actually, though, it does teach him the meanings of countless new words.

"Remember the little redhead who stood up on that prom date in 1938? Well, all these years my conscience has—"

"The lodge next year has to be led by a guy who has real character as well as drive. Your name came up during—"

"Your wife returned the dress, and a credit of $175 has been made to you—"

But you don't hardly get that kind of letter no more, do you?

TV also teaches him to follow a story.

In short, TV broadens a child's horizons tremendously.

However, don't think of the television set as a convenient electronic baby sitter. You must—and I want to emphasize this—regulate your child's viewing habits.

To do this properly, of course, you have to regulate your own TV practices. Your viewing habits, remember, help greatly to determine how your youngster reacts to television.

In far too many homes, I'm afraid, the TV set is the focus of family life. If you dawdle away your time needlessly before the TV screen, you can expect your child to do the same.

Some persons actually become TV addicts. They satisfy their aggressive fantasies through television adventures. Eventually, most of them develop feelings of guilt about the time they waste and the creativeness they lose. Some require therapeutic help from a doctor to cure them of the "TV habit."

I would estimate that probably 50 per cent of you parents do not restrict your child's television. As long as it keeps him quiet, you permit him to sit and watch what he wishes for as long as he wishes.

A good portion of that time might be better spent out side where he can actively, rather than passively, engage in activities. Besides, we all realize that we must censor some TV programs for the younger members of the household.

As parents, you have a responsibility to encourage your youngsters to think and act independently, to use good judgement and to develop his creative abilities.

The television set can be an aid

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Release of nine Americans, taken prisoner when their Army helicopter landed in red-run East Germany, is being delayed because of this country's weird relationship with the Communist world.

It goes like this:

The United States and other Western nations do not recognize the Communist government of East Germany. This country, allied with West Germany, wants German reunification under free elections.

The Western Allies argue that in accordance with the American-British-French-Russian postwar agreement on Germany, all their dealings with East Germany must be done with the Soviet Union.

When the nine Americans and their helicopter strayed into East Germany June 7 and landed there, this country, instead of appealing to the East Germans for their release, appealed to the Russians.

On June 9 the Russian Embassy in East Berlin refused to step into the case, saying the problem was under the jurisdiction of the East German government. This was one more needed to force American recognition of the German Communists.

The next day, June 10, at his news conference Secretary of State Dulles said the United States would deal with the East German Reds, if necessary, to obtain the nine men's release.

Dulles said: "When it comes to getting Americans out of a country, we don't stand on ceremony, you deal with the kidnapers."

But he added: Dealing with the East Germans in this case still wouldn't mean this country recognized the East German government.

On June 11 the East German Communists promised a quick release for the nine Americans if the United States acted in a "normal and reasonable" manner although they didn't explain what those two words meant. They'd negotiate, they said.

Thursday Lincoln White, a State Department spokesman, was asked if this country had started negotiations for the nine Americans. He said no. Why not? The Russian refusal to step in was in a statement. It wasn't a formal note.

So, although Dulles had said this country wouldn't wait on ceremony, White said this country was waiting for a formal Russian refusal before turning directly to the East Germans.

Asked how long this country intended to wait for the formal note of Russian refusal before appealing to the East Germans, White said he didn't know but "we don't intend to wait forever."

The Soviet Union made it official today in a letter delivered to the U.S. Embassy in Bonn. It said return of the Americans is "not within the competence of the Soviet forces" and referred U.S. authorities to the East German government.

The State Department might decide to try again at a higher Soviet level. Otherwise the problem becomes one of technique—how to deal with a regime whose existence as a government is not officially acknowledged. A Bonn embassy spokesman said he didn't know what the next step would be.

Dealing with the East Germans, whom it doesn't recognize, will put this country in the same position in which it found itself when dealing with the Red Chinese whose government it doesn't recognize, either.

Ever since Chiang Kai-shek in 1949 was thrown off the China mainland by the Red Chinese and fled to Formosa, this country, now allied with him, has refused to recognize the Chinese Communist government on the mainland.

Nevertheless Americans fought the so-called Chinese volunteers in Korea and worked out a Korean armistice made possible only because the United States and Red China abide by it.

And, still not recognizing the Red Chinese, this government has been negotiating with them since 1953 for the release of Americans they hold as prisoners.

Students Vying for Jobs

More teen-agers than ever will comprise the force of high school and college students vying for summer jobs this year. And economic conditions are certain to make the competition keener than in the past.

Every spring, before the nation's colleges and high schools release their army of potential summer workers, the U. S. Secretary of Labor customarily outlines their prospects for them.

This year Secretary James P. Mitchell estimated he was addressing 4 million such teen-agers, 2 million of whom would be seeking employment as a matter of economic necessity. Another million were represented as entering the labor market for the first time.

Close to 100 types of work are open to these young people, Mitchell said. Farm jobs—either full-time or on a day-to-day basis—offer the most openings. In one Midwest campaign to recruit both boys and girls for farm work, the rallying calls this year are "Build up those football muscles" and "Trim up that figure."

Summer resort jobs and work in seasonal businesses are expected to employ the next largest number of students. Opportunities vary with local conditions throughout the country. The point made is that the teen-ager who makes an aggressive search for a job, and who is willing to compromise on the type of work and pay he would like, is more likely to be among the successful searchers for summer jobs.

With many young people a job in the summer makes the difference or whether they continue their education. But work during the vacation months also provides an opportunity for basic training and helps a young man or woman to reach a final decision on his life work. Work experience of any kind is valuable to the teen-ager with his productive life before him.

The danger of summer employment is that the feeling of independence summer-time earnings give may lead young people to a wrong decision about further schooling. One pound should prove the need for as much education as possible.

A typical high school graduate will earn $50,000 more in a lifetime than will the eighth-grade 'graduate.'

Who, on receiving a letter that begins in this way, could refrain from reading it all the way through?

Practically no one.

But how often does one get such a really interesting letter as this one? Hardly ever.

When you are very young, any letter is exciting and holds the possibility of great mystery. You turn it over and over to prolong the thrill. And when you open it, you are content even if it is only a form letter telling you how to raise guinea pigs for fun and profit, or how to build bigger muscles for $3.95.

But as you grow older and more cynical, the romance tends to disappear from the postman's mailbag. Mankind is flooded daily by an ocean of mail, most of it wasted because most of it is unread.

The art of letter writing has fallen into a period of sad decay. The average man feels he is lucky if, amid a thousand letters sent to him, he finds one that is really worth the trouble of opening.

The bulk of his mail consists of bills, charity appeals or invitations to buy something he either doesn't want or can't really afford. Most of this he tosses away.

Eaton has said: "The way to combat Communism is not by witch-hunting and wire-tapping. These police-state methods may gain momentary notoriety for the office-seeking politicians who advocate and employ them, but they offer no solution for our long-term economic problems."

To which the following questions may be asked:

1. What is the "solution for our long-term economic problems?"

2. Whose wires have been tapped and by whom?

3. What politicians employ wire-tapping and for what purpose?

Concerning the solution, it would be interesting to hear Eaton out. He may have a philosophy and he may not. The fact that a man knows how to manipulate money is not sure proof that he does or does not know anything else. I have for years read Eaton's statements on various subjects and thus far have not discovered that he is either an Adam Smith or a Karl Marx. Now, just as a matter of accuracy, I wish Eaton would draw up parallel columns showing the similarity of the Kaiser and Dulles, that is the talk of the Kaiser in 1914 and of Dulles in 1958 or any other year Eaton might choose. It might also be interesting to compare Eaton's statement concerning Soviet Russia's efforts to sell the United States on Communism with Khrushchev's interview on the Columbia Broadcasting System's television show in which Khrushchev assured all Americans that their grandchildren would live under socialism, meaning his particular brand which is called Communism. Either Khrushchev did not know what he meant to say or Eaton did not understand what Khrushchev said. Also, Eaton might read Khrushchev's speech to the Bulgarian Communists which deals with this subject.

Whereas it was possible for Khrushchev to do this Columbia Broadcasting job of propaganda within the United States, it is still impossible for any American to speak to the Russian people. Khrushchev might, of course, justify Eaton's optimism by permitting the speech that Herbert Hoover will deliver at the Brussels Fair to be heard by the entire Soviet Union State.

Cyrus Eaton went on to call the FBI a Gestapo. Does he know what the Gestapo was? Does he know what the Cheka, the NKVD were? Does he know what the MVD is? Does he know what the FBI is? Anybody can get front page notice if he is sufficiently ridiculous. The Cleveland "Plain Dealer" put it very concisely when it wrote in an editorial:

"... We've heard of the midnight knock on the door, the torture chamber, the forced confession, the trial without jury, the bullet in the head and so on, but we always attributed that kind of stuff to the Gestapo and the MVD. However, we must remember that Eaton was talking about his own special world, and that world bears no relation to reality."

Of course, the FBI does not operate that way and Eaton must know it, for no one has bothered him because he has become the protagonist of Soviet Russia while an American citizen. He still can say what he chooses and he is not sent to a Siberia to work out his last years mining gold. Here, actually the FBI protects him in his constitutional right to say what he chooses to say, wise or stupid, beneficial or harmful. There is the essential difference. Perhaps Eaton is so accustomed to freedom that he does not appreciate the lack of it.

New Methodist Minister Aids In Washington, D.C. Meeting

The Rev. Paul Irving Wachs, newly-appointed pastor of Circleville First Methodist Church, will move to this city next week. His first appearance in the local pulpit is scheduled for Sunday, June 22.

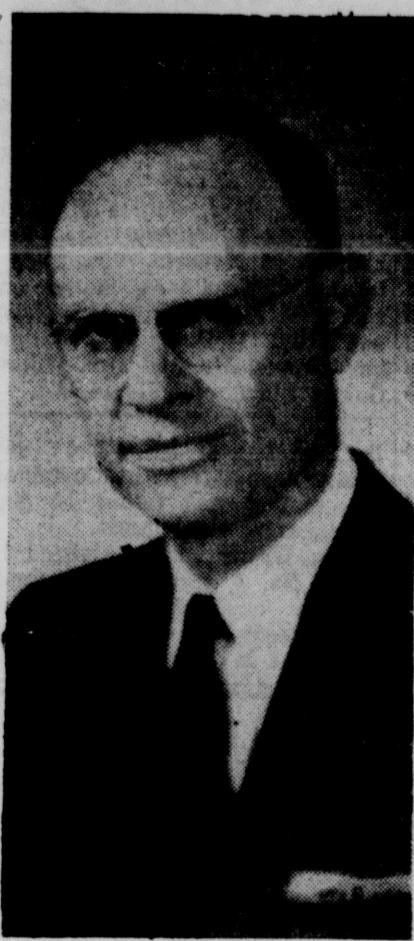

Dr. Kenneth Leary of Columbus will occupy the local pulpit for Sunday's services.

The Rev. Wachs currently is assisting in preparations for a nationwide conference to be held in Washington, D. C., July 3-6.

As secretary-treasurer of the Ohio Methodist Conference's Board of Evangelism, he will represent the Ohio Conference in the nation's capital at the National Convocation on Evangelism during the July meeting.

The new Circleville Methodist minister holds another important office in Ohio Conference, being the secretary of the Conference Relations Committee. He also is a member of the Conference's Board of Pensions and has served for the last 12 years on the Wesley Foundation Board at Ohio University and at Bowling Green State University.

RO, Yellow Bud Earn Loop Wins

River Oil and Yellow Bud powered their way to wins in the Circleville Independent softball league last night at Ted Lewis Park.

River Oil, holding down first place in the loop, steamed past Laurelville, 6-3, and Yellow Bud was pressed to the hilt in stopping General Electric, 1-0.

Single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames paved the way for River Oil. At the end of three innings the score was knotted 3-3 after each team had scored single tallies in the second.

Manion hurled for the Chillicothe nine, allowing three hits, fanning 10 and walking seven. Bianco worked for Laurelville, giving up six hits, whiffing one and walking six.

Francis, Kane and Duffy each poled doubles to lead the RO hitting attack. Pritchard smacked a two-bagger for Laurelville.

The other tilt turned out to be a pitching duel between Yellow Bud's Bill Cook and Detillion of GE.

Both hurlers were tough in the clutches. Cook gave up two hits, fanned 11 and walked two. Detillion almost equaled this performance by allowing four hits, whiffing nine and walking one.

Yellow Bud scored the only run of the game in the sixth inning. Cook and Speeder Davis led the way with a double each.

Weather permitting, a double-header is on tap tonight at the park. GE faces Circleville Merchants at 7:15 p. m. and Yellow Bud takes on River Oil at 8:30 p. m.

Kochheisers Drop 2-1 Test In Chillicothe Jaycee Loop

Kochheiser Hardware, Circleville's entry in the Chillicothe Jaycee baseball league, dropped its opening game of the season here yesterday in a close 2-1 decision to Jack and Paul's of Chillicothe.

Kochheisers, made up of players who probably will perform for Circleville High School next year, outlived the Chillicothe nine, 4-3, but couldn't gain the necessary runs.

The local team, formed only recently, was handicapped by the lack of practice. Four errors by the Roundtowners proved costly.

Duane Dean worked on the mound for Kochheisers, turning in a commendable job. He fanned four, walked two and gave up only three singles.

CUNNINGHAM was the winning pitcher, stopping the locals with four singles. He walked four and set down eight on third strikes.

Brent Bell had two of Kochheiser's four hits. Dave Smith and Asa Elsea accounted for the other two bingles.

The winners scored once in the first and once in the third. Kochheisers pushed its only tally across in the third.

The locals' next game is set for Tuesday with Waverly. The test will be played at Chillicothe.

Kentucky Cagers Nip Ohio Stars

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky high school basketball All-Stars, with brilliant clutch shooting by Bobby Rascoe, came from four points behind in the final 38 seconds Thursday night to beat the Ohio All-Stars, 100-99.

The teams play Saturday night at Middletown, Ohio.

Rascoe hit five points, including a 20-foot jump shot with six seconds remaining, to boost Kentucky from a 99-95 deficit with 38 seconds left.

The game's scoring honors went to Jerry Lucas, 6-10 Middletown, Ohio, star, who broke the series scoring record of 29 points with a total of 33.

The other semifinal contest matched Andrea Cohn, 18, Waterloo, Iowa, against Mrs. J. Harry Henderson, Alexandria, La.

The Circleville Merchants softball team will travel to London Prison Farm Sunday for a single game.

Herb Score Said Ready As Reliever

WASHINGTON (AP)—Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' star southpaw who has been out of action six weeks with an ailing arm, may be available for bullpen duty during the Tribe's four-game series with the Washington Senators opening tonight.

Score told Manager Bobby Bragan in Baltimore Thursday that he feels ready to pitch a few innings in relief.

"I threw as hard as I could and didn't feel any pain," Score said after pitching nearly 30 minutes in a morning workout.

It was during the Indians' last visit to Washington that Score suffered an inflamed ligament of the arm and had to leave the mound April 30.

In a move designed to strengthen the infield, the Indians Thursday traded Chico Carrasquel to Kansas City for Billy Hunter, a steady fielder at second, third and shortstop. Hunter will join the Tribe here today.

The 30-year-old Hunter is known as a weak hitter, but after being informed of the deal Thursday, he hit a triple and a double, driving in two runs, as the Athletics beat the Yankees, 4-1.

Carrasquel, also 30, who went to the Indians from the Chicago White Sox in 1956, ended his career with the Tribe by getting three hits and driving in two runs as Cleveland dropped a 7-5 decision to the Orioles at Baltimore Thursday.

Vinegar Bend Mizell was charged with the loss, his sixth in nine games. He was relieved in the seventh by Lindy McDaniel.

The Redlegs collected two homers, a two-run clout by Ed Bailey in the eighth and a solo by Frank Robinson in the ninth. It was the fifth homer of the season for each.

RO, Yellow Bud Earn Loop Wins

River Oil and Yellow Bud powered their way to wins in the Circleville Independent softball league last night at Ted Lewis Park.

River Oil, holding down first place in the loop, steamed past Laurelville, 6-3, and Yellow Bud was pressed to the hilt in stopping General Electric, 1-0.

Single runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth frames paved the way for River Oil. At the end of three innings the score was knotted 3-3 after each team had scored single tallies in the second.

Manion hurled for the Chillicothe nine, allowing three hits, fanning 10 and walking seven. Bianco worked for Laurelville, giving up six hits, whiffing one and walking six.

Francis, Kane and Duffy each poled doubles to lead the RO hitting attack. Pritchard smacked a two-bagger for Laurelville.

The other tilt turned out to be a pitching duel between Yellow Bud's Bill Cook and Detillion of GE.

Both hurlers were tough in the clutches. Cook gave up two hits, fanned 11 and walked two. Detillion almost equaled this performance by allowing four hits, whiffing nine and walking one.

Yellow Bud scored the only run of the game in the sixth inning. Cook and Speeder Davis led the way with a double each.

Weather permitting, a double-header is on tap tonight at the park. GE faces Circleville Merchants at 7:15 p. m. and Yellow Bud takes on River Oil at 8:30 p. m.

Kochheisers Drop 2-1 Test In Chillicothe Jaycee Loop

Kochheiser Hardware, Circleville's entry in the Chillicothe Jaycee baseball league, dropped its opening game of the season here yesterday in a close 2-1 decision to Jack and Paul's of Chillicothe.

Kochheisers, made up of players who probably will perform for Circleville High School next year, outbatted the Chillicothe nine, 4-3, but couldn't gain the necessary runs.

The local team, formed only recently, was handicapped by the lack of practice. Four errors by the Roundtowners proved costly.

Duane Dean worked on the mound for Kochheisers, turning in a commendable job. He fanned four, walked two and gave up only three singles.

CUNNINGHAM was the winning pitcher, stopping the locals with four singles. He walked four and set down eight on third strikes.

Brent Bell had two of Kochheiser's four hits. Dave Smith and Asa Elsea accounted for the other two bingles.

The winners scored once in the first and once in the third. Kochheisers pushed its only tally across in the third.

The locals' next game is set for Tuesday with Waverly. The test will be played at Chillicothe.

Herb Score Said Ready As Reliever

WASHINGTON (AP)—Herb Score, the Cleveland Indians' star south-paw who has been out of action six weeks with an ailing arm, may be available for bullpen duty during the Tribe's four-game series with the Washington Senators opening tonight.

Score told Manager Bobby Bragan in Baltimore Thursday that he feels ready to pitch a few innings in relief.

"I threw as hard as I could and didn't feel any pain," Score said after pitching nearly 30 minutes in a morning workout.

It was during the Indians' last visit to Washington that Score suffered an inflamed ligament of the arm and had to leave the mound April 30.

In a move designed to strengthen the infield, the Indians Thursday traded Chico Carrasquel to Kansas City for Billy Hunter, a steady fielder at second, third and shortstop. Hunter will join the Tribe here today.

Carrasquel, also 30, who went to the Indians from the Chicago White Sox in 1956, ended his career with the Tribe by getting three hits and driving in two runs as Cleveland dropped a 7-5 decision to the Orioles at Baltimore Thursday.

Kid Pitcher for Pittsburgh Tosses 2-Hitter in Debut

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The day after Christmas 1953 the Pittsburgh Pirates traded second baseman Danny O'Connell to Milwaukee for three guys named Max, Sid and Sam, three kid pitchers and $75,000.

One of the pitchers was termed a sleeper by the Bucs, who brought him along in the minors. Thursday, big right-hander Curt Raydon threw an eye-opening two-hitter for his first victory and complete game in the majors, a 2-1 job over San Francisco that gave the Pirates a three-game sweep.

By losing their fifth in a row the second place Giants tumbled 1 1/2 games behind the Milwaukee Braves, who beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 5-0 on Brooks Lawrence's six-hit pitching. Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 4-3.

In the American League, the first place New York Yankees split a day-night pair with Kansas City, winning 3-2 in 12 innings after a 4-1 defeat, and dumped the A's to third. Boston took over second place, nine games behind, by beating Detroit 4-2. Baltimore defeated Cleveland 7-5 and Washington nipped the Chicago White Sox 6-5.

That 1953 deal, incidentally, gave the Pirates Max Surkont, Sid Gordon, Sam Jethroe, Larry Lasse and Fred Waters in addition to Raydon. O'Connell, now is with the Giants, but sidelined by injury at the moment.

The Braves overhauled a 4-1 Cub lead with Del Crandall's single driving in the winning run in the eighth. Ed Mathews' 13th home run had ties it 4-1 in the seventh against loser Moe Drabowsky (4-6), who beat the Pirates 4-0 with a one-hitter Sunday. Humberto Robinson (1-2) won it in relief. Starter Lew Burdette bowed out after a two-run Chicago fourth, giving up Bobby Thomson's seventh homer.

Lawrence, once "the bull" of the Cardinal staff, didn't walk a man while fanning five of his old mates. The big right-hander (4-3)

now has three consecutive complete game victories—after going without a complete game in 10 starts since last September 18.

Harry Anderson drove in three runs for the Phils, cracking a 3-3 tie with a ninth-inning single. Loser Stan Williams (1-1), who beat the Cubs with a two-hit shut-out for his first major league victory, extended his scoreless inning string to 14 before Anderson's two-run double in the fifth. Dick Farrell (3-2), won it in relief.

This is a story about a loser, a little Murry Dickson of the Kansas City Athletics.

Almost 42, the knuckleballing right-hander went all the way only to lose in 12 innings Thursday night, 3-2 to the American League leading New York Yankees. Most of them weren't old enough to be Boy Scouts when Murry pitched his first major league game.

The kids who beat the old man, a rookie in the AL, were Andy Carey and Elston Howard. Carey, who singled and went to third when his theft of second drew a wild throw, was 8 years old when Dickson broke in with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1939. Howard, who singled Carey home, was 9.

Starter Whitey Ford and winning reliever Ryne Duren were 10 when Murry stepped into the majors from Houston. Bill Skowron, whose sixth home run tied it 2-2 in the fifth, was 8 when the 5-10 1/2 Missourian made his debut. Tony Kubek, who got the first of 12 Yankee hits, was 3.

The A's who won the opener of the day-night pair 4-1, fell to third with the defeat as Boston, a 4-2 winner over Detroit, took second place, nine games behind New York. Fourth place Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-5; and Baltimore jumped past Cleveland into fifth by beating the Indians 7-5.

Ray Herbert (2-1) won the opener with an eight-hitter, blanking the Yanks until Carey's sixth homer in the eighth inning. Bob Cerv hit his 16th homer for the A's, winning their first at Yankee Stadium in 18 tries since July 22, 1956. Tom Sturdivant (1-4) was the loser, giving up a two-run, second-inning triple to Billy Hunter—who was traded to Cleveland for Chico Carrasquel after the game.

Dave Sisler, 4-0 lifetime vs Detroit, won his sixth with relief help after singling home the clincher in the fourth against Paul Foytack (5-6). Jackie Jensen hit his 15th homer for the Sox.

Gus Triandos and Jim Marshall hit two-run homers for the Orioles, who blew a 4-1 lead, then won with Marshall's single driv-

Hagge Is Leader Of Round Robin

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (AP)—Marlene Hagge, unhappy with her game a week ago because she was "steering" the ball, today is the leader entering the second round of the $12,000 Round Robin Women's Invitation golf tourney.

"In the Ladies PGA last week, I was off my game and just barely finished in the money," Marlene said.

Mrs. Hagge had plus 23 points on a three-under-par round of 70 Thursday—10 points ahead of runner-up Betty Dodd who had tied her for 17th in the LPGA.

Oriole, Cubs Managers Rate Top Billing as Traders

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Paul Richards of Baltimore and General Manager John Holland of the Chicago Cubs have been the top traders this season.

There were 18 major trades during the past eight months and Richards and Holland were involved in seven.

Richards' first transaction resulted in Baltimore acquiring pitcher Jack Harshman, first baseman Jim Marshall, outfielder Larry Doby and pitcher Russ Hemans from the Chicago White Sox for Ray Moore, Billy Goodman and Tito Francona. Doby was later swapped to Cleveland for Gene Woodling.

In another deal, Richards obtained Arnold Portocarrero from Kansas City for Bud Daley.

Harshman has won five games, losing the same number. Marshall, playing regularly, is hitting .228 but supplying the long ball for the Orioles. Hemans was optioned to the minors. Woodling is hitting .270 to Doby's .238 and playing regularly while Doby is riding the bench. Portocarrero has a 4-3 record, including two shutout victories, while Daley, unable to win for Kansas City, has been sent to the minors.

Moore has been able to win only two games for the White Sox. Goodman is hitting .265 and Francona .272. Neither of the last two have been playing regularly.

The critics laughed when Holland sent Rush, Don Kaiser and Eddie Haas to the Milwaukee Braves for Taylor Phillips and

Tim Tam Slated For Bone Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Tim Tam comes to this center of veterinary medicine next week for an operation known to baseball players as removal of bone chips.

Ball players usually return to the lineup after such an operation. Tim Tam, horse racing's biggest money winner this year, conceivably could race again. But he won't.

Calumet Farm trainer Jimmy Jones said so Thursday in announcing the operation to be performed at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine.

"He's ruined, and about all we can do is save him for stud," said Jones in New York.

One of the pitchers was termed a sleeper by the Bucs, who brought him along in the minors. Thursday, big right-hander Curt Raydon threw an eye-opening two-hitter for his first victory and complete game in the majors, a 2-1 job over San Francisco that gave the Pirates a three-game sweep.

By losing their fifth in a row the second place Giants tumbled 1 1/2 games behind the Milwaukee Braves, who beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 5-0 on Brooks Lawrence's six-hit pitching. Philadelphia beat Los Angeles 4-3.

In the American League, the first place New York Yankees split a day-night pair with Kansas City, winning 3-2 in 12 innings after a 4-1 defeat, and dumped the A's to third. Boston took over second place, nine games behind, by beating Detroit 4-2. Baltimore defeated Cleveland 7-5 and Washington nipped the Chicago White Sox 6-5.

That 1953 deal, incidentally, gave the Pirates Max Surkont, Sid Gordon, Sam Jethroe, Larry Lasse and Fred Waters in addition to Raydon. O'Connell, now is with the Giants, but sidelined by injury at the moment.

The Braves overhauled a 4-1 Cub lead with Del Crandall's single driving in the winning run in the eighth. Ed Mathews' 13th home run had tied it 4-4 in the seventh against loser Moe Drabowsky (4-6), who beat the Pirates 4-0 with a one-hitter Sunday. Humberto Robinson (1-2) won it in relief. Starter Lew Burdette bowed out after a two-run Chicago fourth, giving up Bobby Thomson's seventh homer.

Lawrence, once "the bull" of the Cardinal staff, didn't walk a man while fanning five of his old mates. The big right-hander (4-3)

now has three consecutive complete game victories—after going without a complete game in 10 starts since last September 18.

Harry Anderson drove in three runs for the Phils, cracking a 3-3 tie with a ninth-inning single. Loser Stan Williams (1-1), who beat the Cubs with a two-hit shut-out for his first major league victory, extended his scoreless inning string to 14 before Anderson's two-run double in the fifth. Dick Farrell (3-2) won it in relief.

This is a story about a loser, game little Murry Dickson of the Kansas City Athletics.

Almost 42, the knuckleballing right-hander went all the way only to lose in 12 innings Thursday night, 3-2 to the American League leading New York Yankees. Most of them weren't old enough to be Boy Scouts when Murry pitched his first major league game.

The kids who beat the old man, a rookie in the AL, were Andy Carey and Elston Howard. Carey, who singled and went to third when the theft of second drew a wild throw, was 8 years old when Dickson broke in with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1939. Howard, who singled Carey home, was 9.

Starter Whitey Ford and winning reliever Ryne Duren were 10 when Murry stepped into the majors from Houston. Bill Skovron, whose sixth home run tied it 2-2 in the fifth, was 8 when the 5-10 1/2 Missourian made his debut. Tony Kuback, who got the first of 12 Yankee hits, was 3.

The A's who won the opener of the day-night pair 4-1, fell to third with the defeat as Boston, a 4-2 winner over Detroit, took second place, nine games behind New York. Fourth place Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 6-5; and Baltimore jumped past Cleveland into fifth by beating the Indians 7-5.

Ray Herbert (2-1) won the opener with an eight-inning, blanking the Yanks until Carey's sixth homer in the eighth inning. Bob Cerv hit his 16th homer for the A's, winning their first at Yankee Stadium in 18 tries since July 22, 1956. Tom Sturdivant (1-4) was the loser, giving up a two-run, second-inning triple to Billy Hunter—who was traded to Cleveland for Chico Carrasquel after the game.

Dave Sisler, 40 lifetime vs. Detroit, won his sixth with relief help after singling home the clincher in the fourth against Paul Foytack (5-6). Jackie Jensen hit his 15th homer for the Sox.

Gus Triandos and Jim Marshall hit two-run homers for the Orioles, who blew a 4-1 lead, then won with Marshall's single driving home the winner in a three-run fifth against losing reliever Don Mossi (4-6).

Mrs. Hagge had plus 23 points on a three-under-par round of 70 Thursday—10 points ahead of runner-up Betty Dodd who had tied her for 17th in the LPGA.

Neil Chrissy's third hit, a triple, and second RBI bagged it for Washington in the eighth against losing reliever Early Wynn (5-5). Al Smith counted three runs with two homers for the last place White Sox. Dick Hyde won it in relief.

Oriole, Cubs Managers Rate Top Billing as Traders

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Paul Richards of Baltimore and General Manager John Holland of the Chicago Cubs have been the top traders this season.

There were 18 major trades during the past eight months and Richards and Holland were involved in seven.

Richards' first transaction resulted in Baltimore acquiring pitcher Jack Harshman, first baseman Jim Marshall, outfielder Larry Doby and pitcher Russ Hemans from the Chicago White Sox for Ray Moore, Billy Goodman and Tito Francona. Doby was later swapped to Cleveland for Gene Woodling.

In another deal, Richards obtained Arnold Portocarrero from Kansas City for Bud Daley.

Harshman has won five games, losing the same number. Marshall, playing regularly, is hitting .228 but supplying the long ball for the Orioles. Hemans was optioned to the minors. Woodling is hitting .270 to Doby's .238 and playing regularly while Doby is riding the bench. Portocarrero has a 4-3 record, including two shutout victories, while Daley, unable to win for Kansas City, has been sent to the minors.

Moore has been able to win only two games for the White Sox. Goodman is hitting .265 and Francona .272. Neither of the last two have been playing regularly.

The critics laughed when Holland sent Rush, Don Kaiser and Eddie Haas to the Milwaukee Braves for Taylor Phillips and Sammy Taylor. The latest figures show Phillips with a 40 record and Taylor batting .295. Rush has a 4-2 record but both Kaiser and Haas are in the minors.

The Cubs also traded Bob Speake to the San Francisco Giants for Bobby Thomson. Thomson, one of Chicago's leading run producers (29), is hitting .284 to Speake's .194 in only 21 games.

Chicago's Alvin Dark deal for pitcher Jim Brosnan appears about even, with Dark hitting .282 for the Cubs and Brosnan gaining three decision without a loss at St. Louis. The Cubs also got a standoff in the trade that sent Turk Lown to Cincinnati for Hershel Freeman. Neither has won.

Ball players usually return to the lineup after such an operation. Tim Tam, horse racing's biggest money winner this year, conceivably could race again. But he won't.

Calumet Farm trainer Jimmy Jones said so Thursday in announcing the operation to be performed at the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine.

"He's ruined, and about all we can do is save him for stud," said Jones in New York.

Don Heinrich of the New York Football Giants led the nation in passing in 1950 when he played for the Washington Huskies.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The outlook is bad for Ohio industries demanding an end to trade agreements that let foreign manufacturers undersell them.

These industries, employing thousands of workers, include pottery, certain glassware, leather goods, lumber, bicycles, ceramics and other firms.

Spokesmen for these types of business have fought a long time against the reciprocal trade agreements. So have their Ohio congressmen, in many cases.

The amazingly lopsided House vote this week to extend President Eisenhower's trade program five years was black news for these people.

Jubilant backers of the program cannot, of course, deny that some Ohio workers can be and are hurt by reciprocal trade.

How can they—when they are shown a piece of Japanese glassware that sells for one third the price of a comparable American product?

But they insist that the vast majority of Ohio workers—nearly a million, in fact—hold their jobs in large measure because their products are sold abroad.

In short, where a comparatively small industry like pottery is damaged by reciprocal trade, they say a huge industry like steel benefits.

To some extent, this difference in viewpoint is reflected in the way Ohioans in the House divided, 11-11, on the decisive vote on whether to pigeonhole the program.

For instance, Rep. William Ayres (R) of Akron, with many large industries depending on foreign trade, voted against killing the measure. Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D) of Flushing, spokesman for a district with many of the complaining industries, voted to kill it.

Rep. Frank Bow (R) of Canton, who opposed reciprocal trade, says he had a large volume of mail from the free traders—much of it, he says, inspired by the League of Women Voters and the Committee for a National Trade Policy, headed by Charles Taft of Ohio.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike is a public highway as far as Ohio's five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax is concerned, the State Board of Tax Appeals has ruled in turning down a claim for a 36 cents tax refund.

The claim was filed by Wellington F. Roemer, Inc., a Toledo insurance firm, for tax on gasoline used by an employee, John J. Neenan Jr., when he drove on the turnpike last November.

Ohio law provides that gasoline not used on public highways is not subject to the state tax.

The company contended the turnpike is not a public highway. It noted that laws governing collection of the highway use tax on trucks do not regard the turnpike as a public highway.

The company applied for the refund and was turned down by the state tax commissioner Feb. 19. It then appealed to the board which ruled Thursday that the tax was applicable to turnpike travel.

The claim was the first filed by a motorist trying to get a gasoline tax refund for travel on the turnpike.

Young Enthused On Senate Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the November election were being held today, "I would be elected by a substantial margin," says Stephen M. Young of Ohio, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate.

Young, here to visit Democratic leaders, said Thursday he may spend less than $20,000 in his campaign to unseat Sen. John W. Bricker, Ohio's incumbent Republican.

His trip here, Young said, was not to raise campaign money. "I'll spend my own money. It might be a little more than $20,000, but I don't think it. It always conducts a modest campaign."

Young Enthused On Senate Race

WASHINGTON (AP)—If the November election were being held today, "I would be elected by a substantial margin," says Stephen M. Young of Ohio, Democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate.

Young, here to visit Democratic leaders, said Thursday he may spend less than $20,000 in his campaign to unseat Sen. John W. Bricker, Ohio's incumbent Republican.

His trip here, Young said, was not to raise campaign money. "I'll spend my own money. It might be a little more than $20,000, but I don't think it. It always conducts a modest campaign."

Lady Financier Says Savings Essential to Housekeeper

DETROIT (AP)—"When times get tight, as they are now, I can only say that women shouldn't get hypnotized at the supermarket."

That's advice from a gal with so much financial experience she can't join an organization without winding up its treasurer.

Sprightly Mrs. Lola Jeffries Hanavan—sister of a former Detroit mayor, daughter of a onetime municipal judge and for years director of the First Mortgage Bond Co. in Detroit—has no fear of figures, financial or otherwise. She doesn't think other women should be thrown at the prospect of money management.

"To have money when things are rough you have to save it," she insists. "You can only do that by putting aside — without fail — a certain amount out of every paycheck."

"Home costs can be cut. Nowadays they have to be, because people are using all they do make for monthly credit payments on their cars, TV sets, appliances."

"There's no provision for savings in most households these days," she continues. "It's so hard to resist buying things on credit — but those are what hamstringing a family when income drops, unless there is a reserve somewhere."

If a woman isn't saving and careful, Mrs. Hanavan feels, she can wreck a home.

"Quarreling over debt is the biggest cause of broken marriages," she maintains. "It's not that women can't understand money. Most of them have a sense of thrift and value. But they don't like to take on the responsibility of a budget."

Mrs. Hanavan has never been shy of responsibility. She got into business in the first place because her husband had suggested she come down to the office and see where costs might be cut. She eventually acquired detailed knowledge on every trade connected with the building business.

Mrs. Hanavan and her husband — who died in 1937 — brought their company through the depression without going into receivership, only firm of its kind in Michigan to do so.

Since the firm was liquidated in the early 1950s, Mrs. Hanavan has kept her hand in by working out budgets for sorority houses run by her college sorority. She also is a member of the mayor's committee studying city school needs.

Ohio Industries Said Hurt By Ike's Foreign Trade Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The out-look is bad for Ohio industries de- manding an end to trade agree- ments that let foreign manufac- turers undersell them.

These industries, employing thousands of workers, include pot- tery, certain glassware, leather goods, lumber, bicycles, ceram- ics and other firms.

Spokesmen for these types of business have fought a long time against the reciprocal trade agree- ments. So have their Ohio con- gressmen, in many cases.

The amazingly lopsided House vote this week to extend President Eisenhower's trade program five years was black news for these people.

Jubilant backers of the program cannot, of course, deny that some Ohio workers can be and are hurt by reciprocal trade.

How can they—when they are shown a piece of Japanese glass- ware that sells for one third the price of a comparable American product?

But they insist that the vast ma- jority of Ohio workers—nearly a million, in fact—hold their jobs in large measure because their products are sold abroad.

In short, where a comparative- ly small industry like pottery is damaged by reciprocal trade, they say a huge industry like steel ben- efits.

To some extent, this difference in viewpoint is reflected in the way Ohioans in the House divided, 11-11, on the decisive vote on whether to pigeonhole the pro- gram.

For instance, Rep. William Ayres (R) of Akron, with many large industries depending on for- eign trade, voted against killing the measure. Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D) of Flushing, spokesman for a district with many of the com- plaining industries, voted to kill it.

Rep. Frank Bow (R) of Canton, who opposed reciprocal trade, says he had a large volume of mail from the free traders—much of it, he says, inspired by the League of Women Voters and the Committee for a National Trade Policy, headed by Charles Taft of Ohio.

Tax Refund On Turnpike Is Refused

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike is a public highway as far as Ohio's five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax is concerned, the State Board of Tax Appeals has ruled in turning down a claim for a 36 cents tax refund.

The claim was filed by Wellington F. Roemer, Inc., a Toledo in- surance firm, for tax on gasoline used by an employee, John J. Nee- nan Jr., when he drove on the turnpike last November.

Ohio law provides that gasoline not used on public highways is not subject to the state tax.

The company contended the turnpike is not a public highway. It noted that laws governing col- lection of the highway tax on trucks do not regard the turnpike as a public highway.

The company applied for the re- fund and was turned down Feb. 19. It then appealed to the board which ruled Thursday that the tax was applicable to turnpike travel. The claim was the first filed by a motorist trying to get a gaso- line tax refund for travel on the turnpike.
